

When Kevin Lance Littlelight was nineteen I cast him as a fancy dancer in jeans and a t-shirt in the very first video I ever made. He claims that I offered him and two of his friends Cheeseburgers as pay. He has no proof of this.

Later he played an Indian Bronc Rider who jumps a freight train with his white cowboy compadres, which people like you will get to see once we pull this adventure off, He says I told him he had to lose 15 pounds if he wanted the part. Wow, what a control freak. Supposedly he lost the weight.

Here is something I can vouch for: Kevin Littlelight is going to be a director on the follow up film, 'FOLLOW THE SKY HOME' which tells the story of 39 boxes of film heading to Los Angeles and a director going home to share the story of his friend Jordie Thompson, because a story like Jordie's is way worth the weight of gold it'll take to tell it. .

Kevin also wants to direct the film about the life and times, the road of glory and disasters, the official film about the famous/ infamous, bitter, blessed, grateful, Canadian legend, filmmaker, director, writer, cinematographer, producer Jeth Weinrich. Wait, what? When is this happening?
